4) Show Chair - Mindy Halligan/Mark Cockerell

a) Mary Allnut - Props Committee - Mary was not at this meeting but Mark discussed several additions he would like to make to the props for the Winter Show. To be discussed with Mary.

b) Mark Cockerell would like to hold auditions for Cindy Lou Who (Winter Show) since there are multiple kids interested in that part. An email will be sent out on a scheduled date to hold those auditions. Most likely will be a Thursday afternoon.

Emails will go out immediately on this.

c) Sign ups for the Winter Show should already be available. Group practices will be November 10th, November 17th, November 24th, December 1st, and December 8th. December 15th will be dress rehearsal. ALL dates from 8:00-9:00AM. Entry fee is $35.00 per person (regardless of what event you are in) payable online or at the Plex.

In order to audition for the Winter Show, the $35.00 entrance fee must already be paid.

The December 15th dress rehearsal WILL NOT involve solists.

If you are interested in a solo number for the Winter Show, there are limited spaces. Please make a request to Mindy Halligan or Mark Cockerell and those requests will be discussed and decided by the Show Committee.

5) Test Chair - Maria Grose was not in the meeting so Mindy Halligan discussed the following:

a) Maria has all three judges from our August test session scheduled for the test session in March. Maria is confirming what levels they can judge for the competition. Mindy discussed offering up Excel if possible. This would allow some of the older girls to participate where they were not able to before.

b) Reciprocity email from The Figure Skating Club of Charleston (see attached email address)

Mindy discussed to reinstate that skaters from Charleston Skate Club and Greenville Skate Club to be able to be judged at the same rate as PSC members. And, of course, PSC members would have that same option when going to those two facilities for judging events.

6) Junior Board - Sarah Rego

a) Lazor Tag night will be Saturday, October 27th. Sarah will send out further information on this event.

7) New Business

a) National Skating Month is January 2019.

Minday Halligan - Event Director

Skate To Supre Powers

Will need to order at least 2 kits

Younger Learn To Skate kids will be on the ice during Group Ice sessions, and will be giving free group lessons to the public.

We will be discussing this month more in detail at a later date

b) Tablet for music has been acquired and is set up for club members.

Each kid will have their own playlist

Mary Ellen will be sending out an email to all club members asking them to submit their music in MP3 format to President@palmettoskateclub.com. We will discontinue using CDs as soon as possible.

8) Additional New Business

Due to recent events, Mark Cockerell will be sending out an email in reference to skating rules/respectful skating practices, during Public and Freestyle skate times.

9) Adjournment was @ 6:30PM
