PUBLIC AND FREESTYLE ICE RULES

We have recently reminded everyone to review the Code of Conduct as we all try to be more mindful of one another as well set good examples to those outsiders who may be watching and learning from us. In addition to the Code of Conduct, we would like for each one to review the ice rules below. A kindly reminder that it is both the skaters and coaches responsibility, whether in lesson or not, to makes sure that these rules are followed. Everyone should be able to enjoy their time on the ice not matter their level :)

We are very proud of the skaters below who have qualified for sectionals. Good luck to each of them as they will be representing our club next week! If you find some time to watch them skate and cheer along, all Juvenile through Novice events from all 3 sections will be live streamed on USFS Fanzone. Member Spotlight

LAUREN JI

Lauren began skating, at the age of 5, when her parents signed her up for the Learn-to-Skate program at our local rink. What she likes most about skating is the feeling of landing a new jump. Having a clean program at competition, after trying hard, makes her happy. She is currently coached by Coach Mark. Her goal is to, one day, perform a clean program with triple jumps. She is currently working on her Senior moves in the field and Intermediate freeskate. She competes at Juvenile Girls singles and Intermediate pairs with her bother, Luciano.

Outside of skating, Lauren attends Meadow Glen Middle School where she is in 7th grade. Her favorite subject is Science; she hopes to become a surgeon to help patients in need. Lauren plays the violin and enjoys watching YouTube videos. An interesting fact is that she has completed watching more than 100 animated series.
